

Summer Reading Challenge

Summer is finally here and I have a fun reading challenge for you! I hope that you are excited to go on a summer reading adventure before coming to 3rd grade!

I have created a choice board full of fun and different ways to enjoy reading. There are 20 different choices on the board to choose from. Your challenge is to complete as many choices on the board as you possibly can. After you complete a task on the board, ask a parent or guardian to write their initials on the line.

As you read, record what books you have read on the Reading Log page provided for you. You can choose your own books or choose a suggested book from the list I have provided. Bring your completed reading challenge to school with you on the first day!

Have a wonderful summer and happy reading!
